FROM THE BLUE LETTERS:

In life a man ever must receive even as he gives and the nature of life's contribution to him is determined by the attitude or fundamental reality of his self-sharing with every environment.

(527) TEG GREEN - HILMA DUEY, JOHN RANDY HOEL, LEONORA SMITH MCCARLEY, KARIN PISCHKE, BOB SHEELEY, IRIS WESTWOOD

The tenth Word is an exhortation that we accept only in terms of our soul's radiation. (527) MAYTE PICCO-KLINE, CAROL ZENGARA

The purpose of life is ensoulment, and it is of the most utter unimportance what other people in reality may ensoul and possess because what one soul gains all souls may share to the degree they are alive in their soul life. (529) LIZANNE LEDBETTER McCLENON - SUZANNE DeGEISO, LIZANNE McCLENON, RICHARD STANEWICK

Something exceedingly rare occurred this month! There were no matches in our current Philosophy lessons, "Studies in Alice." Wondering what to do in this case, I was inspired to include each of the submitted selections from that set.

So, please know that all students are invited to participate in the monthly Thesaurus rhythm. To share your selections for inclusion in the Thesaurus, just choose one sentence from each of the series, Blue Letters, Philosophy Lessons and Bible Lessons issued in a calendar month.

Type them up or write them down and send them by post or email to reach me by the 10th of the following month.

It was a joy to see many of you at our Summer Conference!
